REQUEST FOR CERTIFICATE OF CORRECTION BASED UPON APPLICANT'S MISTAKE

Applicant has identified an error in the patent to be corrected involving the removal of a claim of priority to U.S. Provisional Patent Application 60/054,171.

The priority claim was erroneously removed through a Request for Correction of Filing Receipt mailed by the original patent applicant's attorney on October 13, 1998 that contained a typographical error (attached as Exhibit A hereto). In the heading of the document, Applicant's attorney referred to U.S. Application Serial No. 09/124,30~~8~~. However, the body of the Request for Correction (Exhibit A) clearly stated on page 1 that Applicant was removing priority in U.S. Application Serial No. 09/124,30~~7~~ (a then-copending application). The Request for Correction also included a copy of the filing receipt for Application Serial No. 09/124,30~~7~~ with an interlineation through the claim of priority (see page 2 of Exhibit A). Both the '30~~7~~ and the '30~~8~~ applications originally included a claim to priority of Provisional Application Serial No. 60/054,171.

Because the heading of the Request for Correction (Exhibit A) inadvertently listed Serial No. 09/124,308 instead of Serial No. 09/124,307, the Patent & Trademark Office deleted the claim of priority from U.S. Application Serial No. 09/124,308. However, Applicant's attorney's clear intention was to delete the claim of priority from Application Serial No. 09/124,307.

Therefore, it is submitted that the claim of priority was mistakenly removed from Application Serial No. 09/124,308 due to Applicant's Attorney's typographical error in the heading.

The present patent is also the subject of a reissue application (Serial No. 11/642,942) based upon the same error cited herein. Applicant discovered the typographical error after filing of the reissue application. Should the Patent & Trademark agree that the error is typographical in nature and issue a Certificate of Correction, Applicant will withdraw the reissue application.

Applicant authorizes the fee of $100 under 37 CFR § 1.20(a) for a Certificate of Correction and any other fee required by this paper to be withdrawn from Deposit Account No. 162201.

Respectfully submitted,
